HOWDY!
Graduate Student Council (1967-1968)
GPSC Organization Hierarchy

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- Executive Offices
- Standing Committees
- Special Committees

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

- Delegates
- Liaisons
GPSC Standing Committees

- Awards
- Diversity and Inclusion
- Quality of Life
- Research
- Internal/External Legislative Affairs
- Recruitment
- Marketing and Communications
- Programming and Service
- International Student Affairs
Agriculture and Life Sciences
Education and Human Development
Liberal Arts
Pharmacy
Public Health
Science
Look Engineering
Mays Business
Medicine
GPSC Special Committees

Grad Camp
Texas A&M University

Student Research Week 2016
Our Mission

The Graduate and Professional Student Council, serving as the graduate and professional student government of Texas A&M University, exists to work in cooperation with the Texas A&M University administration, faculty, and student leaders to advocate for graduate and professional students and to ensure that their needs are understood and considered when campus policies concerning academic excellence, tuition and finance, and research are made.
ADVOCACY
RESEARCH
COMMUNITY
Grad Camp
Student Research Week
RESEARCH
Travel Grant Awards
Travel Awards
- $10,000 Every Year
- Open to any GPSC recognized graduate or professional student organization

Student Research Week
- Largest student-led research competition and symposia in the United States
- 700 undergraduate, graduate, and professional student presenters
- 500 judges and volunteers
- $20,000 Student Research Awards

Aggies Commit Fellowships
- $20,000 for Scholarships
- High Impact Graduate and Professional Learning Experiences
- Quality Enhancement Plan
- Commitment to Excellence
ADVOCACY
Lobbying in Austin & D.C.
Grad Student Coalitions
University Legislation
COMMUNITY
Wine Tasting and Interdisciplinary Dinners
Brewery Night
Board Game Night
Ice Skating
Call to Action
Make sure your graduate organization sends a delegate to the GPSC meeting 1st & 3rd week of each month
Make sure your graduate organization sends a delegate to the GPSC meeting 1st & 3rd week of each month.
Make sure your graduate organization sends a delegate to the GPSC meeting 1st & 3rd week of each month