

THESIS GUIDELINES SPECIFIC TO M.A. THESES WRITTEN IN SPANISH

1. The Title Page will follow the format of the sample pages in the Thesis Manual.
2. The abstract will appear in both Spanish and English. Abstract will come first, then a separate page for the Resumen.
3. The dedication may be in English or Spanish or both. Dedication is limited to one page.
4. Acknowledgements will appear in English, with the option of a Spanish version as well. Acknowledgements will come first, then Agradecimientos.
5. Contributors and Funding Sources will appear in English, with the option of a Spanish version as well.
6. Ordering of contents (listing of preliminary pages in the Table of Contents) is optional:
 - Abstract
 - Resumen
 - Dedicación (Optional)
 - Agradecimientos (Optional)
 - Contributors and Funding Sources
 - Etc.

See the Thesis Manual for more information.

7. Endnotes may appear at the end of each chapter, numbered consecutively within each chapter.
8. There will be one overall reference section after the last chapter. See the Thesis Manual for specific guidelines for setting up the reference section.
9. Thesis Manual requirements will be followed for all other requirements.